WHEREAS, Rol Kebach began his career in the law enforcement field in 1946 as Pennington County Deputy Sheriff in 1946: and,

WHEREAS, Rol began working with the Division of Criminal Investigation on May 1, 1949 and then served as Division Director for twenty years from 1953 to 1973; and,

WHEREAS, Rol has over these past years demonstrated a total dedication to law enforcement, justice and to the improvement of this vitally important field; and,

WHEREAS, he has rendered invaluable help to county sheriffs and other peace officers throughout the State of South Dakota and has improved and maintained excellent working relationships with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service and other federal authorities and has earned their admiration and respect; and,

WHEREAS, Rol was a vital and leading figure in the development of the Peace Officer's Training School instituted in Vermillion, and he was later a leader in its development here in Pierre; and,

WHEREAS, his role in those endeavors prompted one South Dakota daily newspaper to call the Peace Officer's Training School the "greatest thing in law enforcement in many years;" and,

WHEREAS, he has rendered splendid service to the people of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, November 17, 1978 marks the graduation of thirty law enforcement officers from the Law Enforcement Training Session so appropriately named the "Rol Kebach Class," and,

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the Governor make special note of this occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, November 17, 1978, as in South Dakota and join with Rol's countless friends in offering him thanks for a job well done.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of November, in the year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH
SECRETARY OF STATE
